Ladies and Gentlemen

Ref.: Merger Hansa Projekt Anlagentechnik GmbH / Westinghouse Electric Germany GmbH

Hereby we would like to inform you that the Hansa Projekt Anlagentechnik GmbH (HPA), Hamburg/Germany, was merged to Westinghouse Electric Germany GmbH, Mannheim, with the economic effect April 1st 2010. Consequently, the entire assets of the HPA and all contractual relationships with the HPA have been transferred to our company, which is now responsible to fulfill HPA's obligations. Upon completion of the merger on August 31 2010, the HPA extinguished as a legal entity.

Our company which is Westinghouse Electric Germany GmbH, fulfills the obligations of the HPA with their existing employees who now work for our company in the usual manner and in the usual quality. Your contacts are still available under your known contacts.

For further questions about this restructuring process, please contact Dr. Jörg Aign.

Kind regards,

Dr. Norbert Haspel
Vice President and Managing Director
Central Europe
